

Cheryl A. Testa

Cheryl A. (Kyaka) Testa, age 77, of Millville, NJ passed away Sunday, December 27, 2020 after a brief illness, at Inspira Medical Center. She fought a courageous and positive battle against cancer for several years. Born in Chester, PA to the late Michael Kryka and Anne (Chabanuk) Webb, she was raised in Ridley Park and graduated from Notre High School in 1961. Cheryl worked for the Philadelphia Bulletin, GAF North American Manufacturing, and the Franklin Mint in the collectables division for 23 years. Always active in her community, Cheryl was a member of the Swarthmore Players Club for many years; Lector at St. John Fisher, member of Liberty Village social committee, and editor of the newsletter; faithful member of the Parish of All Saints, and St. Mary Magdalene Food Bank. Cheryl is survived by her sister Bonnie Iverson, nephew Gary, grand-nephew Michael, grand-nieces Kiley and Jessica, and cousin Arlene Chabanuk. Predeceased by her sister Evelyn D'Angelo. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Parish of All Saints OR St. Mary Magdalene Food Bank, 621 Dock St, Millville, NJ 08332.
